Ingredients

2/8 of Mentalism

2/8 of Ilusionism

2/8 of Humor

2/8 of Participation of the Audience

Mint, Angostura and Tabasco

Preparation

Mix in a shaker so it is very cold. It is served in wide and low glass with a lot of crushed ice.

It is a drink that enters slowly, to be savored and tasted without haste.

The Angostura and Tabasco give you the right point to round off the experience.

Duration

The standard cocktail has been created to be tasted and tasted in a time of approximately 45-50 minutes. But it can always be adapted to different formats according to the needs of the client and the premises.

Specialty

It is an ideal elixir to be served in theaters, pubs, convention halls, restaurants, convention halls, sample fairs, etc.

Opinions

Sergi Casamitjana (ESCAC CEO)

"For more than 10 years, Magician Moliné has been our official showman. It presents galas, conducts debates and gatherings, all with doses of good humor and above all, with its spectacular magic."

Marta Marcillas (Pâtisserie Marcillas owner)

"In many of the caterings that we have served, both for individuals and for companies, the Magician Moliné and his shows have given him that touch of good illusion that dazzles and that, at the same time, leaves the audience totally unsettled. He rocks!"

Sergio Forrellad (C. de Vacaciones Cala Montjoi CEO)

"To have Magician Moliné among our usual artists is to bet on a winning card. Our clients know how to value good shows. It is not easy to act for more than 600 people and achieve sincere applause and admiration."

Raúl Mesa (MSON Restaurants owner)

"The Night of Magician Moliné, that moment where there are no strangers, only people who have not been presented..."
